The bktne Amelia and bark Emerald, for Port Townsend, the bktne Loch Lee, for Humboldt, and the schr Julia, for the South Sea Islands, cleared yesterday.

Messrs. Williams & Co. have photographed the interior of the lanai where the luau was held last Thursday. It is as it appeared before the guests sat down. The photograph may be seen in one of the windows of our store.

Mr. Hinchley, a painter working on the Reformatory School buildings, fell from a staging yesterday. His left thigh was broken at the middle, and his left arm just above the wrist was also broken. He also received two severe cuts in the forehead.

The great trouble experienced in Iowa in keeping Russian bloodhounds, is the fact that they don't discriminate between tramps and members of the family, but bite all alike.

An editor, who accused his rival of "taking articles from these columns without credit," wound up by saying, "What is worth clipping is worth crediting;" whereupon the rival sardonically suggested that "that was a feeler to see if he could get his hair cut on credit."

Darwin says man sang before he talked. Of course, they were forced to invent language then. They had to express the disgust which singers always entertain for each other's vocal efforts.

A Norristown woman returned from a day's visit to New York, and when asked how she enjoyed her self, replied: "I had a delightful time; I spent four hours at the Morgue, and five dead bodies were brought in while I was there."

A small girl, who had been pondering upon the question of the sunrise and sunset gun which she heard daily in New York City, startled her father recently with the inquiry: "Does God shoot the gun up in the morning and shoot it down at night?"
